

Family law takes off in Brisbane

November 5, 2009

Michael Sing Lawyers \(MSL\) has announced the expansion of its family law department to include Amy Sanders-Robbins as part of the Brisbane team.

Having practised exclusively in family law for over three years, Sanders-Robbins holds degrees in Law and Behaviour Science from Griffith University.

She has also been a volunteer Solicitor with the Nundah Community Legal Service for over two years and brings a range of experience to MSL.

MSL is one of Queensland's largest full-service law firms with award-winning offices located in Brisbane CBD and on the Gold Coast.

With a professional team of more than 70 staff in both the Gold Coast and Brisbane offices, MSL now incorporates Australian Migration Lawyers and Workplace Law Queensland.

MSL was ranked 149 in the 2009 QBR Queensland 400, which recognises the top privately owned companies within the State.

COMMENTS

Add Comment

SUBMIT COMMENT