legal positions at the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions (ODPP), including practice manager.

The Advocacy – Parslow Chambers also welcomes lawyer Emily Cooper. Previously with the ODPP, Cooper has experience in prosecutions and advocacy. Drawing on her criminal law expertise she will be assisting the chambers with prosecutions, representation at coronial inquests as well as appearing and instructing on committal and pre-trial hearings in various courts.

MICHAEL SING LAWYERS

EXPERIENCED corporate and securities law professional Barrie Meerkin has joined Michael Sing Lawyers to head the firm's corporate law department.

Meerkin has more than 30 years legal experience and is admitted to practice in Queensland, Victoria, England, Wales and Hong Kong.

He has worked for some of the largest and most highly acclaimed law firms in the world, often overseeing settlements and syndications for major banks and international financial corporations including Chase Manhattan Bank and Citibank.

In addition Meerkin has provided high level legal advice in and around all aspects of corporate capital raisings, functioning and compliance.

Meerkin's appointment comes shortly after Michael Sing Lawyers offshoot Australian Migration Lawyers (AML) secured the services of two leading migration law experts.

Letitia de Lima joins AML from Queensland-based immigration agency Visas r Us and has more than 20 years of commercial experience gained in both the public and private sectors.

Peter Lee has expertise in migration that has stemmed from more than 24 years as an immigration officer in the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC).

TLG LAWYERS

TLG Lawyers has secured the part-time services of two highly respected university law lecturers.

QUT Law School senior lecturer Donna Cooper has joined the boutique firm as a family law consultant.

Cooper was admitted as a legal practitioner in Queensland in 1989 and practised exclusively in family law for several years. She now teaches at both undergraduate and postgraduate level and researches in family law and dispute resolution.

One of the country's leading animal law specialists, Steven White, has also joined TLG Lawyers as a consultant.

Before joining Griffith Law School as a lecturer,

White worked as a solicitor with Mallesons Stephen Jaques; as an associate to Justice Bill Pincus of the Queensland Court of Appeal; and as an adviser to a senator of the Commonwealth Parliament.

CARTER NEWELL LAWYERS

JODI Palmer has been promoted to senior associate in Carter Newell's litigation and dispute resolution division while colleague Sarah Robinson has been promoted to senior associate in professional indemnity.

Palmer has acted in a wide-range of commercial disputes including insolvency matters, complex multi-party litigations and banking recoveries which have included obtaining numerous orders for recovery of possession of security properties on behalf of lenders.

Robinson has extensive experience in insurance litigation, including public, product liability, workers compensation, labour hire, professional indemnity, medical malpractice, general insurance, risk management, indemnity and policy advice.

She has been instrumental in achieving major results for clients at mediation and her responsiveness to clients' needs has regularly brought matters to early settlement with the best possible outcomes for clients.
